Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

Welcome to Sacred Heart Church, where we embrace each other as family, just as Jesus taught us to love one another and share each other's burdens. We strive each day to grow a little kinder, a little better, guided by the light of our faith. We are thrilled to extend our warmest greetings to you as you join our community. We make it our mission to make you feel at home, starting with reserving you a seat among us. We invite you to explore our website or stop by the church office to learn more about how you can become an integral part of our parish family. We look forward to getting to know you and journeying together in faith. Remember Sacred Heart in your will!

Bienvenidos a la Iglesia del Sagrado Corazón, donde nos abrazamos como familia, así como Jesús nos enseñó a amarnos los unos a los otros y compartir las cargas de los demás. Aquí nos esforzamos cada día por ser un poco más amables, un poco mejores, guiados por la luz de nuestra fe. Estamos encantados de extenderle nuestros más cordiales saludos al unirse a nuestra comunidad. Nuestra misión es hacerle sentir como en casa, empezando por reservar un asiento entre nosotros. Lo invitamos a explorar nuestro pagina web o pasar por la oficina de la iglesia para obtener más información sobre cómo puede convertirse en una parte integral de nuestra familia parroquial. Esperamos conocerle y caminar juntos en la fe. ¡Recuerda el Sagrado Corazón en tu testamento!

THE SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Recognizing the King in the Eucharist

This weekend we celebrate the final Sunday of the liturgical year: the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, often simply called the Feast of Christ the King. It is a celebration that draws our attention to the sovereignty of Christ over all creation, His victory over sin and death, and His rightful place at the center of our lives. This feast is relatively new in the Church's liturgical calendar. In fact, this year marks the 100th anniversary of Quas Primas, the encyclical issued by Pope Pius XI in 1925 that formally established the celebration. Writing in a time of rising secularism, atheism, and the rejection of Christian values from public life, Pope Pius XI saw clearly that societies which push Jesus Christ and His holy law aside inevitably fall into discord and division. As the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops explains, the Holy Father instituted this solemnity to proclaim boldly that while “governments come and go, Christ reigns as king forever” (USCCB.org). Jesus Christ, the Pope wrote, “is very truth, and it is from Him truth must be obediently received by all mankind” (Quas Primas, 7).

Christ's kingship is rooted in the mystery of the Incarnation. Jesus is fully God and fully man, one Person of the Trinity who assumed our human nature. Because of this divine union, the Church teaches that Christ is Lord of all creation: “not only... to be adored by angels and men,” but also that all creation “must recognize His empire” (Quas Primas, 13). His kingship is not distant or abstract; it is deeply personal. He reigns over the universe, yet He also desires to reign in the human heart.

Pope Pius XI was clear about what this means for us: “He must reign in our minds... in our wills... in our hearts... and in our bodies,” shaping the way we think, choose, love, and live (Quas Primas, 33).

A Wake-Up Call From Our Own Sanctuary

This message becomes especially urgent for us as a parish because of a painful incident last Sunday: after Mass, the Eucharist was found on the floor of our church. This should trouble us deeply. Whether dropped accidentally or carelessly, it reveals a growing need for Eucharistic reverence, catechesis, and awareness. On this feast of Christ the King, we are invited to ask ourselves: Do we truly recognize our King when He comes to us in the Eucharist? If Jesus Christ is King of the Universe, Lord of heaven and earth, then He is also King hidden in the humble form of bread. The same Christ who reigns in glory sits upon the altar at every Mass. The same Jesus whom angels adore is placed into our hands or on our tongue. The same Lord who will judge the nations dwells in our tabernacle. If we believe this, then every Host must be received with awe. Every moment in His presence should move us to humility and love. And every time we approach Holy Communion, our hearts must whisper, “My Lord and my King.”

Renewing Our Eucharistic Reverence

As we close the liturgical year and prepare to enter Advent, this solemnity invites us to return wholeheartedly to Christ our King, especially in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Let us renew:

Our reverence in receiving Holy Communion

Our attention to the sacred presence of Christ

Our responsibility to ensure no Host is ever mishandled or left behind

Our love for the King who gives Himself completely to us

May this feast strengthen our faith, heal our indifference, and open our eyes to the King who reigns from the throne of the Cross—and from the altar in our very midst.

Christ the King, reign in our hearts. Christ the King, reign in our parish. Christ the King, reign forever.

Fr. Franklin
