Open your group in prayer and remember that this is only a guide. Feel free to discuss each of the questions provided or simply dive deeper into just one. If you only have a few minutes, you can just use the 3 Essential Questions.

Scriptures:

- Revelation 1: 1-3, Rev. 1: 17-18, Rev. 13:10, Rev. 14:12

Three Essential Questions

The following questions are intended to be open-ended and encourage members to consider how they felt and what they, or the group, can do as a result of hearing the message.

1. What did you hear? What point in this message was most impactful for you?
2. What do you think? How did this message challenge, change, or affirm your thinking?
3. What will you do? How will you or your group put into practice what you've learned today?

Message Points/Extra Questions

1. Do you skip prologues when you read books? How is the prologue of Revelation vital for understanding its message?
2. Share if you have any personal experiences or teachings about Revelation and how they've shaped your understanding.
3. How does seeing Revelation as a blessing change your perspective on the book?
4. Pastor Ernest mentioned that Revelation teaches us to see and trust Jesus clearly in chaos. Can you think of a chaotic time in your life when you have needed to see and trust Jesus? What did you do practically to help?
5. How does Revelation provide hope and encouragement in the face of uncertainties?
6. What does it mean to live faithfully in a world with opposing values?
