

Summary

New month, new series! Welcome to our "SO THAT..." series!

This first week, we are unpacking our Vision Statement:

We exist so that the lost can be found, the found will be sent, until all have heard the Gospel.

In Luke 15 (the lost sheep, lost coin, and lost son) and Luke 19 (Zacchaeus the tax collector), we are reminded that God values the lost and actively pursues them.

Then in John 20, Ephesians 4, Matthew 28, and Romans 10, we see that as His people, we are equipped and empowered to be sent into the world with His Gospel.

And when is our mission complete? When the whole world has heard the Gospel and has been given the opportunity to respond; culminating in the beautiful scene of heaven in Revelation 7:9 where an uncountable multitude of God's people worship the Lord.

Group Discussion

1. Did anything in the sermon clarify something for you, catch your attention, challenge you, or leave you confused?

Read Luke 15:8-10

2. What does this parable teach us about the value of one person to God?

Read Luke 19:1-10

3. How does this encounter with Zacchaeus show us the heart and purpose behind Jesus' mission?

4. What keeps society, and even your own heart, from seeing people as truly valuable and worth pursuing?

5. How would you explain, in your own words, what it means that those who are found will be sent?

a) Who has God already placed in your life as someone you're sent to?

Read Matthew 28:16-20

6. What is encouraging, challenging or convicting in this passage?

7. In what ways might your daily schedule look different this week if you lived with the mindset that you are "sent"?
