

Summary

In Daniel 2:1-23, Nebuchadnezzar is troubled by a dream and summons magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers to explain it, but none can.

Nebuchadnezzar demands they tell him both the dream and its meaning, offering great reward if they succeed and death if they fail.

When the advisors admit the task is impossible for any human on Earth, he orders all the wise men in Babylon to be executed.

When Arioch comes for Daniel, Daniel seeks to understand this harsh decree and asks the king for time to interpret the dream. He also gathers Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah urging them to pray and plead for mercy.

That night, God reveals the mystery to Daniel in a vision, and Daniel responds with praise, exalting God for His wisdom, power and revelation.

Upcoming Events

- BRIDGE GIRL ABIDING GROUP
May 9th // 9:00am
Text "ABIDE" to 602-600-6711
- WARRIOR MOM
May 16th // 9:00am
- MEN'S NIGHT
May 29th // 7pm
- TBC GOLF A THON
Bellair Golf Course
May 19th // 6am - 6pm

SCAN TO GIVE DIRECTLY

THEBRIDGEAZ.COM

Group Discussion

1. Did anything in the sermon clarify something for you, catch your attention, challenge you, or leave you confused?

Read Daniel 2:1-23

2. Have you ever, like the advisors in Nebuchadnezzar's court, faced expectations that felt impossible? How did you respond?

3. How do the reactions of Nebuchadnezzar, his advisors, and Daniel differ in crisis, and what do they reveal about their trust?

4. Describe Daniel's approach and response to the decree, and how does he respond after God answers?

5. Who are the people in your life you can invite to pray with you in difficult situations?

6. Which attributes of God in verses 20-23 stand out to you most, and how might they shape your praise this week?

