DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Parables are designed to throw us for a loop and challenge our assumptions. Why is it that parables and stories can be unsettling?
2. Not all pearls are created equal. What are some examples of things people might sacrifice everything for that ultimately leave them empty?
3. What is the pearl of great price? Why is it not only worth having, but worth everything?
4. Jesus' parable talks about two crucial aspects of the gospel of the kingdom: joy and responsibility. Why are both so important for our faith?

SERVICE WORSHIP THIS SATURDAY
Sign up today for Service Worship projects this Saturday, July 26, 9:00 am - 12:00 pm. We have seven projects for Service Worship, to help our community prepare for school. All projects are indoors. We need at least 20 sets of willing hands to complete these fun tasks... 40 sets of hands would be even better! These are family friendly so children are welcome. Sign up at *sapctucson.org or this morning in the back of the Sanctuary. Which project is God calling you to?
