MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Get involved by serving! Whether you're helping by handing out coffee before a service starts, or teaching in Kid's Ministry, you can make a difference. St. Andrew's loves God and others by serving with more than 40 different mission partners. Whatever your gifting, interests, or schedule— there is a place for you to serve. Each role is different, but they are all equally important. sapctucson.org/serve

Words of Welcome

*Time of Greeting

*Call to Worship
One: How good and pleasant it is when all of God's people live together in unity!
All: It is like precious oil on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down on the collar of his robes
One: It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion.
All: There the Lord commands the blessing, life forevermore.
One: Let us worship the Lord in one body and one voice, united in faith, hope, and love.

Christ for the World We Sing, Hymn #686, vs. 1, 2, & 4*

The Invitation to the Lord's Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving
One: The Lord be with you.
All: And also with you.
One: Lift up your hearts!
All: We lift them up to the Lord.
One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right for us to give thanks and praise. Truly it is our joyful duty to give thanks to You at all times and in all places, O Lord, our Creator, and everlasting God! You spoke the heavens into being with all its hosts, and the earth with all its plenty. You created us in Your image, and have given us life and being, which preserve us by Your providence. Truly, You have shown us the fullness of Your love by sending into the world

Your Son, Jesus Christ, the eternal Word, made flesh for us and for our salvation. For the precious gift of this gentle, yet mighty Savior Who has reconciled us to You, we praise and bless You, O God. With Your whole church on earth and with all the company of heaven, we worship and adore Your glorious Name.

ABOUT THE COVER

Sadao Watanabe (1913-1996) worked in stencils and pencils. He entered the Christian faith as a young man and survived the Second World War despite losing his home to bombing. During reconstruction he began to make prints that placed the gospels into traditional Japanese folk contexts. The image in this bulletin is taken from a series of prints on the parables of Christ.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS NEEDED

We're looking for adults who are willing to serve as Sunday School teachers during our 9:00 a.m. service and share the love of Jesus with the next generation. You don't need to be a Bible expert or a gifted teacher. Please contact Heather at hbrannock@sapctucson.org to learn more.

FAITH ON TAP

Faith on Tap is a great opportunity for men to get to know one another over snacks and BYOB. It's conversation about life, faith and God - a casual, no-stress environment. Our next gathering will be on Friday, August 21, at 6:00 pm. Please see our Weekly News or contact Pastor Raully at rdonahue@sapctucson.org

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Often when Jesus is pressed by other teachers and experts in the Law, He tells a story or a parable. Why do you think Jesus engages so much in storytelling during debate?
2. Luke notes that the expert in the law asked Jesus 'Who is my neighbor?' because he "wanted to justify himself." What do you think Luke meant by this? What were the expert's motivation for asking this particular question?
3. The Levite and the priest first see the wounded traveler and do not stop. Yet the Samaritan, when he sees the wounded man, stops and helps him. Using your imagination, what do you think might have been the key difference between their responses?
4. How can we see Christ within the parable? In what way is Christ like or unlike the various characters?
