*Call to Worship | Psalm 34:4-8

One: I sought the Lord, and He answered me;

All: He delivered me from all my fears.

One: Those who look to Him are radiant;

All: their faces are never covered with shame.

One: This poor soul called, and the Lord heard;

All: He saved them out of all their troubles.

One: Taste and see that the Lord is good;

All: blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him!

The Invitation to the Lord’s Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: Lift up your hearts!

All: We lift them up to the Lord!

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: Truly it is our joyful duty to give thanks to You at all times and in all places, O Lord, our Creator, and everlasting God! You spoke the heavens into being with all its hosts, and the earth with all its plenty. You created us in Your image, and have given us life and being, which preserve us by Your providence. Truly, You have shown us the fullness of Your love by sending into the world Your Son,

Jesus Christ, the eternal Word, made flesh for us and for our salvation. For the precious gift of this gentle, yet mighty Savior Who has reconciled us to You, we praise and bless You, O God. With Your whole church on earth and with all the company of heaven, we worship and adore Your glorious Name.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why do you think God speaks to Jeremiah a second time in prison rather than changing his situation first?
2. “Call to Me, and I will answer you and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known.” Why might God in this situation wait for us to approach Him, rather than taking the initiative Himself?
3. Marcel Proust wrote, “The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes.” Jeremiah is essentially called to see Jerusalem’s rubble with new eyes—not denying the destruction, but not being defined by it either. How do we hold present reality honestly while still expecting something more?
