The Invitation to the Lord’s Table

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: Lift up your hearts!

All: We lift them up to the Lord!

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: Truly it is our joyful duty to give thanks to You at all times and in all places, O Lord, our Creator, and everlasting God! You spoke the heavens into being with all its hosts, and the earth with all its plenty. You created us in Your image, and have given us life and being, which preserve us by Your providence. Truly, You have shown us the fullness of Your love by sending into the world Your Son, Jesus Christ, the eternal Word, made flesh for us and for our salvation. For the precious gift of this gentle, yet mighty Savior Who has reconciled us to You, we praise and bless You, O God. With Your whole church on earth and with all the company of heaven, we worship and adore Your glorious Name.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. The Israelites asked, “Is the Lord among us or not?” Why do you think difficult circumstances can make us question God’s presence?
2. Can you think of a time when you recognized God’s provision only after looking back on a difficult situation?
3. Who might be “thirsty” in your life right now—not necessarily physically, but emotionally, spiritually, or relationally?
