LET'S MAKE SOMETHING BEAUTIFUL

SERMON SERIES & STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN:
Let's Make Something Beautiful
November 8 - 28

"And God saw that it was good." (Genesis 1:10)

Again and again, the creation story invites us to notice the goodness and beauty of what God has made. Beauty begins with God's generosity. Our response begins with gratitude.

Words of Welcome

*Time of Greeting

*Call to Worship | Psalm 121
One: I lift my eyes to the hills. Where does my help come from?
All: Our help comes from the Lord, Who made heaven and earth.
One: The Lord will not let your foot slip; the One Who keeps you does not sleep.
All: The Lord watches over our coming and going, now and forevermore.
One: When our strength is gone and our plans have failed,
All: God is still able. Come, let us worship the living God together!

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving
One: Lift up your hearts!
All: We lift them up to the Lord!
One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: We give You thanks and praise, Almighty God, for all You have done for the world. We must not take even our existence for granted; it is Your love which has given us life. But even more we must praise You for our Lord Jesus Christ Who through His life and death brought us the forgiveness of our sins. We thank You that in Your loving mercy, this bread and this cup may be the means by which we remember His holy sacrifice and share His body and blood. In His Name we pray, Amen.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Jude is the second to last book of the Bible. One commentator noted that if Revelation were not in the Bible, the last five verses of Jude would not be a bad way to conclude the entire New Testament. What do you think?
2. Jude declares believers are "kept safe for Jesus Christ" (v. 1) and praises the God Who "is able to keep you from falling" (v. 24). Yet in verse 21 he tells us to "keep yourselves in the love of God." How does God's keeping and our keeping fit together?
3. "Build yourselves up on your most holy faith" (v. 20) is plural, addressed to the whole community. How might we build up each other in our most holy faith? What about our individual selves?
4. The Greek phrase for "keep you from falling" (v. 24) was used for a sure-footed horse that doesn't stumble. What are some of the slippery terrains in our world right now? How is God able to keep you stable?
