

Show the Gospel

Scripture: John 13:1-35

1. Love is enduring – v. 1

2. Love is self-giving – vv. 2-17

3. Love is painful – vv. 18-30

4. Love is missional – vv. 31-35

ONE THING

A new command I give you: Love

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance. – 1

Corinthians 13:1-8a (NLT)

Life Group Guide

For the week of May 18, 2025

What does it mean know, cultivate, share, and show the gospel? Over this four-week series we will see how the gospel affects every area of life. We will see how we have been saved by surrendering our life to Christ, are being saved because of God's sanctifying work in us, and will be saved after we leave this earth and enter our eternal home in God's presence. The message of Jesus is not merely informational but transformational.

1. Define the love of which Jesus speaks in this passage. How is it different than the world's definition of love?
2. How is this commandment new (see Lev. 19:18)? What is the newness of which Jesus speaks?
3. Read 1 John 2:7-11. How does John help us understand better how to show the love of which Jesus speaks?
4. Where does this apply for you in your relationships with unbelievers?

ONE THING

A new command I give you: Love

Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance. – 1

Corinthians 13:1-8a (NLT)