

A Changing Year and an Unchanging Savior

Scripture: Hebrews 13:7-16

As we stand between Christmas and the New Year, in a season marked by change, this passage calls us to fix our hearts on Jesus, the one who remains the same.

1. Remember those whose lives are shaped by the Word of God (Hebrews 13:7)
2. Rest in the unchanging Christ (Hebrews 13:8)
3. Respond with lives of worship (Hebrews 13:9–16)

As we begin reading through the Old Testament together on January 1st, Hebrews reminds us that we do so with our hearts fixed on Jesus, the one to whom God's story has been pointing all along.

ONE THING

Don't define God's presence by your comfort.
Define it by Jesus, the One who remains the same.

Life Group Guide

For the week of December 28, 2025

Welcome to our fall Bible Recap sermon series. I hope you are following along with the New Testament reading plan, either with the bookmark or the Bible Recap: New Testament reading plan in YouVersion. May God bless us as a church as we read His Word together over the next year!

1. John starts his letter at the same way he starts the gospel of John, in the beginning. Why is it important to go back to the beginning when thinking about Jesus?
2. We have fellowship with the Father and the Son, what an amazing truth! What does it mean to have close, abiding communion in a relationship with God?
3. Fellowship with God means that we are like him, we reflect who he is in how we live. In what areas do you struggle to walk in the light rather than in the darkness?
4. God freely forgives. It's true! In what ways do you need to accept that forgiveness more readily?

ONE THING

Don't define God's presence by your comfort.
Define it by Jesus, the One who remains the same.
