

Genesis || Week 4 || Genesis 1:26-28

What analogy of the Imago Dei resonates with you most? (There's a reflection in a mirror, an ancient king and his image, and an ambassador in a foreign country.) What can we learn from these analogies?

In the Trinity, God has always existed in perfect community. What is it about life in a local church that reflects God's community?

Read Ephesians 3:10. How is God's wisdom made known in this verse? (It may be helpful to consider surrounding verses as well.)

What is the Missio Dei (the mission of God)? What does it mean for God to be a sending God? How do we join God in his mission?

How are the Imago Dei and the Missio Dei related?

How should all of these things affect our commitment to a local church?

How does this passage of Scripture most comfort and/or convict you personally?
