

What is a disciple?

Who was someone/something you followed religiously as a kid?

New Beginnings defines a disciple as one who is following Jesus, being transformed by Jesus, and engaged in the mission of Jesus. What do these 3 components entail?

The sermon mentioned these 3 components in a similar, but different way. A disciple is an apprentice under Jesus, a worshipper of Jesus, and a witness to Jesus. How do these ideas give shape to the life of a disciple?

What makes a Christian disciple unique isn't that he/she is following someone, but that the person he/she is following is unique. In your own words, what makes Jesus unique?

What ought to be the priorities in the life of a disciple?

In your own words, how would you define a disciple? What Scripture passages come to mind?

In your opinion, is there any difference between a Christian and a disciple? Why or why not?

When it comes to discipleship, why is it important to know what a disciple is?

How do these ideas most comfort and/or convict you personally?
