1. PURPOSE OF THE POLICY

This policy sets out FTCOC's policy on child safe reporting and complaint handling.

Everyone in FTCOC must:

- Know what to report, who to report to and how to report.
- Report any concerns about the safety or welfare of a child or young person immediately.
- Ensure the safety and wellbeing of the child is paramount when responding to a disclosure or allegation about a child being harmed or at risk.

Our reporting practices will be regularly reviewed and updated to make sure they remain effective and comply with legislation.

2. DEFINITIONS OF HARM AND ABUSE

GENERAL DEFINITIONS

Psychological abuse (also known as emotional abuse)

This includes bullying, threatening and abusive language, intimidation, shaming and name calling, ignoring and isolating a child, and exposure to domestic and family violence.

Physical abuse

This includes behaviours such as pushing, shoving, punching, slapping, kicking and unauthorised use of restraint.

Sexual abuse

This includes the sexual touching or sexual assault of a child, grooming, and production, distribution or possession of child abuse material.

Grooming

This is a process where a person manipulates a child or group of children and sometimes those looking after them, including parents, carers, teachers and leaders. They do this to establish a position of 'trust' so they can then later sexually abuse the child.

Misconduct

This is inappropriate behaviour that may not be as severe as abuse but could indicate that abuse is occurring and would often be in breach of the FTCOC Code of Conduct. This could include showing a child something inappropriate on a phone, having inappropriate conversations with a child or an adult sitting with a child on their lap.

Lack of appropriate care

This includes not providing adequate and proper supervision, nourishment, clothing, shelter, education or medical care.

REPORTABLE CONDUCT DEFINITIONS

Children's Guardian Act 2019 defines reportable conduct as:

- a sexual offence
- sexual misconduct
- ill-treatment of a child
- neglect of a child
- an assault against a child
- an offence under s 43B (failure to protect) or s 316A (failure to report) of the Crimes Act 1900
- behaviour that causes significant emotional or psychological harm to a child

The definitions of harm and abuse listed below are based on those in part 4, section 20 of the Children's Guardian Act 2019.

Sexual Offence

A sexual offence is an offence of a sexual nature under a law of NSW, another state/territory, or the Commonwealth committed against, with or in the presence of a child, such as:

- sexual touching of a child
- a child grooming offence
- production, dissemination or possession of child abuse material.

An alleged sexual offence does not have to be the subject of criminal investigation or charges for it to be categorised as a reportable allegation of a sexual offence.

Sexual Misconduct

Sexual misconduct of a child means any conduct with, towards or in the presence of a child that is sexual in nature (but is not a sexual offence). The following are examples of sexual misconduct:

- descriptions of sexual acts without a legitimate reason to provide the descriptions
- sexual comments, conversations or communications
- comments to a child that express a desire to act in a sexual manner towards the child, or another child.

III-treatment

III treatment of a child means conduct towards a child that is:

- unreasonable, and
- seriously inappropriate, improper, inhumane or cruel.

III-treatment can include a range of conduct such as making excessive or degrading demands of a child; a pattern of hostile or degrading comments or behaviour towards a child; and using inappropriate forms of behaviour management towards a child.

Neglect

Neglect of a child means a significant failure to provide adequate and proper food, supervision, nursing, clothing, medical aid or lodging for the child that causes or is likely to cause harm to the child, by:

- a person with parental responsibility for the child
- an authorised carer or an employee if the child is in the employee's care.

Neglect can be an ongoing situation of repeated failure by a caregiver to meet a child's physical or psychological needs, or a single significant incident where a caregiver fails to fulfil a duty or obligation, resulting in actual harm to a child or where there is the potential for significant harm to a child.

Examples of neglect include failing to protect a child from abuse or exposing a child to a harmful environment.

Assault

An assault can occur when a person intentionally or recklessly:

- applies physical force against a child without lawful justification or excuse - such as hitting, striking, kicking, punching or dragging a child, or
- causes a child to apprehend the immediate and unlawful use of physical force against them, such as threatening to physically harm a child through words and/or gestures.

Behaviour that causes emotional or psychological harm to a child

Behaviour that causes significant psychological or emotional harm is conduct that is intentional or reckless (without reasonable excuse), obviously or very clearly unreasonable and which results in significant emotional harm or trauma to a child.

For a reportable allegation involving psychological harm, the following elements must be present:

- an obviously or very clearly unreasonable or serious act or series of acts that the employee knew or ought to have known was unacceptable, and
- evidence of psychological harm to the child that is more than transient, including displaying patterns of 'out of character behaviour', regression in behaviour, distress, anxiety, physical symptoms or self-harm, and
- an alleged causal link between the employee's conduct and the significant emotional or psychological harm to the child.

Unacceptable Behaviours Under the FTCOC Code of Conduct

The FTCOC Code of Conduct provides a list of unacceptable behaviours around children and young people that breach the Code of Conduct.

Many of these behaviours may not meet the threshold of 'reportable allegations' under the Reportable Conduct Scheme but may indicate a pattern of concerning behaviour.

3. TYPES OF COMPLAINTS (WHAT TO REPORT)

All complaints should be reported. These include:

- criminal conduct;
- disclosures or reports of abuse;
- risk of significant harm (ROSH);
- reportable allegations (an allegation that an employee has engaged in conduct that may be reportable conduct); and
- unacceptable behaviour around children and young people that breaches the FTCOC Code of Conduct.

4. MAKING AN EXTERNAL COMPLAINT / REPORT

WHO MUST MAKE AN EXTERNAL REPORT

It can be a criminal offence for adults not to report to police if they know, believe or ought reasonably believe that a child abuse offence has been committed against another person. In addition, it can be a criminal offence for people employed in an organisation that provides child-related services if they fail to reduce or remove the risk of a child becoming a victim of child abuse.

MANDATORY REPORTING

Mandatory reporting is the requirement by law for selected classes of people to report suspected child abuse and neglect to government authorities. In NSW, mandatory reporting is regulated by the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 (the Care Act).

Mandatory reporters are people who deliver the following services, wholly or partly, to children as part of their paid or professional work:

- Health care (e.g. registered medical practitioners, specialists, general practice nurses, midwives, occupational therapists, speech therapists, psychologists, dentists and other allied health professionals working in sole practice or in public or private health practices);
- Welfare (e.g. psychologists, social workers, caseworkers and youth workers);
- Education (e.g. teachers, counsellors, principals);
- Children's services (e.g. childcare workers, family day carers and home-based carers);
- Residential services (e.g. refuge workers); and
- Law enforcement (e.g. police)

The NSW Mandatory Reporter Guide lists concerns that are reportable for Mandatory Reporters.

The NSW Mandatory Reporter Guide (MRG) is designed to guide you through the process of mandatory reporting.

Mandatory Reporters in FTCOC

Any church volunteer who is working with children and/or has undertaken the Safe Spaces Training.

Sector-Specific Reporting Obligations

In addition, children and young people, their families or advocates and members of the community who may interact with our services are encouraged to disclose and report to our organisation and will be supported when doing so.

HOW TO MAKE AN EXTERNAL COMPLAINT/REPORT

Reporting Criminal Conduct to the Police

It is of the utmost importance that criminal allegations be reported to police at the earliest opportunity and that entities obtain guidance from police before taking any action that could compromise a criminal response.

Sometimes, it will be very clear that a report to police is required. For example, if you receive a report about sexual assault of a child, or a serious physical assault. At other times, it may be less clear. The NSWPF encourages all matters to be reported. It is critical that criminal allegations be reported immediately to police, as taking risk management action or commencing investigative steps before consulting with police may jeopardise a police investigation.

It is important to note that some failures to report criminal allegations to police will constitute a criminal offence. For example, s316A of the Crimes Act 1900 sets out an offence for concealing child abuse in relation to a failure to report a child abuse offence to Police. A failure to report allegations of criminal abuse of a child may also constitute reportable conduct in some circumstances.

Contact NSW Police at Forster Police Station on 02 6555 1299 for anything you consider could be a criminal offence. This includes sexual assault, physical assault, grooming offences, and producing, disseminating or possessing child abuse material.

For general enquiries, please contact NSW Police on 131 444.

For more information on concurrent investigations, consult the OCG website for 'Reportable conduct investigations and the NSW Police Force'.

Reporting Risk of Significant Harm (ROSH)

Any person in the community who has reasonable grounds to believe that a child or young person is at risk of significant harm (ROSH) can report to the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ) on 132 111 (this is a 24-hour service).

Definitions of ROSH are set out in the legislation or on page 46 of the OCG's Reporting Obligations and Processes handbook.

Mandatory reporters can also make an eReport through the ChildStory Reporter Community if they have reasonable grounds to suspect ROSH for a child.

Reportable Allegations and Reportable Convictions Under the Reportable Conduct Scheme

The Reportable Conduct Scheme is an allegation-based scheme. The threshold for making a notification to the Office of the Children's Guardian is that a reportable allegation has been made.

A reportable allegation is an allegation that an employee has engaged in conduct that may be reportable conduct or that the employee is the subject of a conviction that is considered a reportable conviction.

Reportable Conduct includes sexual offences, sexual misconduct, ill-treatment of a child, neglect of a child, an assault against a child, failure to protect a child or failure to report if a child has been harmed, as well as any behaviour that causes significant psychological harm to a child (see full definitions of reportable conduct above).

Reportable allegations and reportable convictions must be reported to the Office of the Children's Guardian (OCG) within 7 days of the Head of Relevant Entity becoming aware of them.

This can be done using the 7 Day Notification Form on the OCG's website.

5. MAKING AN INTERNAL COMPLAINT/REPORT

WHO MUST MAKE AN INTERNAL REPORT

Everyone engaged to work or volunteer in Forster Tuncurry Church of Christ must make an internal report about any child abuse or misconduct concerns they either observe or are told about.

The person making the internal report will not be penalised. A failure to report, or preventing another person from reporting, will be considered misconduct.

HOW TO MAKE AN INTERNAL REPORT

Internal reporting by employees, contractors and the FTCOC Safe church team:

Reporting breaches of the FTCOC Code of Conduct

All breaches and disclosures must be reported to the FTCOC Safe Church team, or the Senior Pastor.

Internal reporting by children and young people or their families or advocates, and other members of the community

Our standard complaint handling procedures are as follows (although we reserve the right to approach a complaint more flexibly if we think it will achieve a more just and efficient outcome):

- 5.1 We will acknowledge each complaint promptly and give you the contact details of the person handling the complaint, ideally within 7 business days. If we have not finalised your complaint within 21 days after that, we will contact you to report our progress.
- 5.2 We will assess the complaint and assign it priority.
- 5.3 If investigation is required, we will plan how the investigation is to be carried out.
- 5.4 We will investigate all relevant factual issues and then review the complaint in light of those facts. We will then consider options for complaint resolution.
- 5.5 We will contact you to discuss the complaint. In doing so we will inform you of the relevant facts we have identified and ask you to comment and/or give us any other relevant information you may have. We will then discuss with you how we propose to resolve the complaint. If we were wrong or have acted inappropriately, we will apologise.
- 5.6 If you are not satisfied with the proposed resolution, our Board Chair will review the position, and we will contact you appropriately. If you are still not satisfied, and we believe that there are genuine issues involved, we may suggest an externally facilitated mediation. Alternatively, you may pursue any other action which you believe is appropriate.
- 5.7 We will act on any systemic issues that are identified as a result of the complaint or feedback.

(Note – if we reasonably believe that a complaint is vexatious, trivial or not genuine we will inform you accordingly as soon as we form that view. If you wish to take matters further, you may pursue any other action which you believe is appropriate.)

6. HOW COMPLAINTS SHOULD BE HANDLED

OVERVIEW OF THE COMPLAINT-HANDLING PROCESS

Once an allegation or complaint has been made, use this step-by-step process to make sure it is appropriately followed up:

1. Steps are taken to identify and address any risks.
2. The incident is recorded.
3. Reporting obligations are met, if necessary.
4. An investigation is conducted, keeping everyone involved up to date with what is happening.
5. Ongoing support is offered to the child or young person as needed.
6. The incident is reviewed and our child safe documents are updated, if necessary. This includes reviewing our Risk Management Plan.

Management on Receiving an Allegation or Disclosure

It is the responsibility of the Safe Church team to follow Safe Church procedures after receiving an allegation, to ensure the safety of all people involved and maintain the integrity of any potential investigation.

Procedural Fairness, Including Privacy and Confidentiality

Any allegation of abuse must be treated in a fair, transparent and timely manner.

Workers subject to an allegation will be notified when a disciplinary hearing is to take place and what will occur at the hearing. We follow the obligations defined under the Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth).

Any relevant reportable conduct investigations are conducted with the OCG's Reportable Conduct Directorate.

Additionally:

- All information is recorded on our reporting form for complaints and allegations (see Appendix A for a copy of this form).
- All reporting forms for complaints and allegations are stored securely and only accessed by those in the organisation with responsibility for oversight of the investigation.
- Information may be exchanged under Chapter 16A of the Child and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998, with other agencies who have responsibilities relating to the safety, welfare or wellbeing of children or young people.
- Our organisation maintains the privacy of those involved in accordance with our obligations under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998.
- If an incident is found to be substantiated, likely outcomes or responses will be determined from advice given by relevant authorities (police, DCJ or OCG).

7. RELEVANT LEGISLATION

- Crimes Act 1900
- Child and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998
- Children's Guardian Act 2019

- Privacy Act 1988 (Commonwealth)
- Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998.

8. HOW WE PUBLICISE AND SUPPORT OUR CHILD SAFE REPORTING POLICY

To make sure everyone in our organisation is aware of our Child Safe Reporting Policy and their reporting obligations, we:

- Hold information sessions about our child safe documents and how they apply to staff (including volunteers), families and children.
- Create and display important information from our Child Safe Reporting Policy that describes what to report, who to report to and how to report, including fact sheets, brochures and posters.
- Provide staff with internal and external training opportunities so they understand processes for complaints and allegations.
- Share links to the Office of the Children's Guardian's Reporting Processes and Obligations handbook.
- Create and promote age- and ability-appropriate communications for children that explain what do if they feel sad, angry or concerned
