Psalm 90

New International Version

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

- ¹ Lord, you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations.
- ² Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the whole world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
- ³ You turn people back to dust, saying, "Return to dust, you mortals."
- ⁴ A thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night.
- ⁵ Yet you sweep people away in the sleep of death—they are like the new grass of the morning:
- ⁶ In the morning it springs up new, but by evening it is dry and withered.
- ⁷ We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation.
- ⁸ You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.
- ⁹ All our days pass away under your wrath; we finish our years with a moan.
- ¹⁰ Our days may come to seventy years, or eighty, if our strength endures; yet the best of them are but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away.
- ¹¹ If only we knew the power of your anger! Your wrath is as great as the fear that is your due.
- ¹² Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
- ¹³ Relent, LORD! How long will it be? Have compassion on your servants.
- ¹⁴ Satisfy us in the morning with your unfailing love, that we may sing for joy and be glad all our days.
- ¹⁵ Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.
- ¹⁶ May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendor to their children.
- ¹⁷ May the favor^a of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands.
