I'VE HAD ENOUGH: Our Search For Meaning

Ecclesiastes 1:12-18 – I, the Teacher, was king of Israel, and I lived in Jerusalem. I devoted myself to search for understanding and to explore by wisdom everything being done under heaven. I soon discovered that God has dealt a tragic existence to the human race. I observed everything going on under the sun, and really, it is all meaningless—like chasing the wind. What is wrong cannot be made right. What is missing cannot be recovered.

I said to myself, “Look, I am wiser than any of the kings who ruled in Jerusalem before me. I have greater wisdom and knowledge than any of them.” So I set out to learn everything from wisdom to madness and folly. But I learned firsthand that pursuing all this is like chasing the wind. The greater my wisdom, the greater my grief. To increase knowledge only increases sorrow.

“The world laments you for 1 hour then forgets you forever.” – Mark Twain

What is the _____?”

Without Jesus, _____!

Ecclesiastes 12:13 – “Here now is my final conclusion: Fear God and obey his commands, for this is everyone’s duty.”

John 14:6 – “I am the _____, the _____, the _____.
No one comes to the Father except through me!”
