

New Covenant Realities: The Communion Table
110120sa

Thanksgiving, is for: _____!

Exodus 15:26 (NKJV)

People know that they cannot _____ “all his statutes.”

Exodus 23:25 (NKJV)

Galatians 3:10 (NKJV)

Hebrews 8:6, 13 (NKJV)

Deuteronomy 7:12–15 (NKJV)

How much do you believe that you have to _____ in order to _____ the blessings of God?

Deuteronomy 7:12 (NKJV)

Matthew 8:16–17 (NKJV)

The tests may say that you have these things; but they don't _____ to you!

The cross is not _____!

Colossians 2:13 (NKJV)

Colossians 2:14 (NKJV)

Jesus took it all, and _____ it to the cross!

Colossians 2:15 (NKJV)

Applying this to the Lord's Table

1 Corinthians 11:23–26 (NKJV)

Take and eat! = _____!

Group Homework—110820sa
New Covenant Realities: The Communion Table

Looking back at your notes from this week's teaching, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

1. Has your understanding of Communion changed after Sunday's sermon?
2. Read Philippians 3:7-9. How will this passage, along with Sunday's sermon, affect your participation in Communion from now on?
3. Jesus' sacrifice made it possible for Christians to experience a whole host of spiritual "benefits." Read the following verses and write down the spiritual benefit each one talks about.

Ephesians 1:7—

Ephesians 2:18—

Colossians 1:13—

Romans 5:1—

1 Peter 2:24—

Which one of these is most encouraging to you? Which one are you most likely to overlook?