Looking back at your notes, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you or raised a question?

When it comes to being salt in the world, the issue is not, "Will it make any difference?" Salt, by its very nature, always makes a difference. The question is, "Will I accept my role?" You are the salt of the earth. Are you being salty?

How can you remind yourself throughout the week that you are the salt of the earth?

Read Philippians 2:5-11. What can we learn from Christ's example?

How did Christ couple extraordinary humility with extraordinary power?

How can you couple humility with power when ministering to others?

This week, how will you follow the commissioning that Jesus gave us ?

*Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. Philippians 2:5-7

*Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. Galatians 6:9-10
