Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Huntington

We Are the Bouquet
 Sunday, June 21 at 10:30 am

Led by
 Rev. Israel Buffardi

Music by the UUFH Choir
 and Dylan DeFeo

In Person and Online (www.uufh.org)

Everyone brings a flower and drops it into one shared vase, and what you walk out with is a flower somebody else brought. The whole bunch of them together, all different and a little mismatched, ends up more beautiful than any single one, which is more or less why we do it. If you don't have a flower, come anyway and take one from the extras. You don't need to prepare or believe anything to be part of it.

June Split Plate

Central American Refugee Center

In this year of attack on immigrants, CARECEN is incredibly thankful that the UU Fellowship of Huntington is joining our fight. CARECEN (the Central American Refugee Center) has been on Long Island for over 40 years, providing services to immigrants living in Suffolk and Nassau counties. Our mission is to empower immigrants through legal services, education, and advocacy. Our legal team offers almost every kind of immigration legal service to low income immigrants, and our community education offers English classes, workshops on diverse topics (such as taxes and accessing health insurance), workforce development, and citizenship classes. We also have a team of social workers who have been a source of hope and life within the chaos and heartbreak that so many immigrants are facing right now. With a holistic approach, our teams work collaboratively to meet the growing needs of immigrants on Long Island. Your gifts make a world of difference to the most vulnerable in our communities right now. Thank you, from the CARECEN team!
