

Culture of the Kingdom

BIG IDEA

Jesus is the King of Kings. He is leading a Kingdom movement on the Earth through His people - the Church. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus lays out for His people what the culture of His Kingdom is to be like. When we follow Him and His way, we make Kingdom Impact everywhere we go.

DISCUSSION

- Jesus teaches that Kingdom life begins with relationship before behavior — intimacy with the King produces transformation. Where in your life are you currently trying to change behavior instead of pursuing deeper relationship with Jesus?
- The message said many people are exhausted because they are trying to live Matthew 5 morals without Matthew 6 pursuit. What does striving look like in your spiritual life, and how is it different from seeking God first?
- The invitation was to repent and receive — not out of fear but relationship. What is one area where God may be inviting you to stop trying alone and start walking with Him?
- Jesus calls His followers to be salt and light. What do you think this means for us today? Where has God placed you to bring Kingdom impact right now? How will you do that this week, be specific?
