

Family for Families

BIG IDEA

Because Jesus laid down His life for us, we now know what real love looks like. That love compels us to move beyond words and into action, meeting real needs at a real cost. When the church says yes, we become the answer to a child's prayer and a reflection of Christ to a broken world.

DISCUSSION

- Ice Breaker :: What is your experience or knowledge of foster care? What statistic was the most shocking given in the sermon on Sunday?
- In 1 John 3:16–18, how does Jesus' sacrifice define love? What does John mean by loving "in deed and in truth" rather than just words?
- In Exodus 22:22–23 and Isaiah 1:17, what do these commands reveal about God's character and His expectations for how His people treat the vulnerable?
- In James 1:27, how does Scripture redefine both "true religion"? What is significant about these two groups of people?
- What "need" do you currently see around you that you may be tempted to overlook, and what would it look like to respond with action instead of intention?
- Discuss serve day that is coming up on June 28th and potential projects for your group.
