

Stories

BIG IDEA

Your life is already telling a story, but Jesus wants to become the Author of it. Even the broken, painful, and seemingly hopeless chapters can be redeemed when we fix our eyes on Him and trust Him with control. A story worth telling begins when we surrender the pen to Jesus and allow Him to turn our pain into purpose.

SCRIPTURES REFERENCED

- Hebrews 12:2
- Romans 8:28
- Luke 7:11-17

PRAYER

DISCUSSION

- Ice Breaker :: What's the funniest or most unforgettable story from your life so far?
- Have you ever gone through a season where you struggled to understand what God was doing in your story? What helped you keep trusting Him?
- The sermon said, "A story worth telling begins when we surrender the pen to Jesus." What area of your life is hardest for you to surrender right now?
- Are there any "dead" areas in your life right now — spiritually, emotionally, relationally, or mentally — where you need Jesus to bring hope or restoration?
- What is one step of surrender or trust you feel God asking you to take after this message?
- Discuss serve day that is coming up on June 28th and potential projects for your group.

PRAYER FOCUS

- Pray for the interest meeting on June 7th with Families for Families