Just Tell Me What I Need to Know

God loves you and wants to have a _____ with you.

There are three things I want you to know about the most important _____ anyone can ever have.

Number one. It's PERSONAL.

No one can have that relationship for you.

It has to be your _____ and not someone else's.

John 1:12-13

Your mom and dad can't make it happen, your best day on earth can't make it happen, and someone else's commitment on your behalf can't make it happen.

Only _____ can make it happen.

Revelation 3:20

Number two. It's POWERFUL.

No man, woman, boy or girl has ever stayed the _____ after beginning a relationship with God.

2nd Corinthians 5:17

There is _____ more important than what Jesus Christ can and will do for you.

Romans 10:9-13

Number three. It's ETERNAL.

Remember the vows you took on your wedding day?

John 3:16

There will never be a better _____ on this side of heaven or the other side of death.

So, what does a person have to do to make sure they have a personal, powerful, eternal relationship with God?

John 1:12

They have to _____ in God and what He says to _____ from God what He promised.

You may not have all the answers today, but that's _____.

God wants to have a relationship with you and that's all I really wanted you to know today.
