The Man, The Message, and The Master

Matthew 3:1-17

Our story begins with a strange _____ by the name of John.

God loves to _____ people the world overlooks and ignores.

1st Corinthians 1:26-29

God wants to use you for His glory.

Don't let _____ keep you from doing what God wants.

1st Corinthians 2:3-5

Unlike most preachers of his day, John's message was not an easy one. I say that because... it was the one thing most people DO NOT want to do with their life.

How many of you struggled to let go of some of your old habits _____ you gave your life to Jesus Christ?

Just because it's hard... does not mean we should change our message. Because when we change our message...

We end up changing the _____.

Acts 26:9-20

The message was important back then as well as today.

Matthew 3:13-15

What did Jesus mean by that?

So, why did Jesus get baptized?

It was simply the right thing to do.

Which means it's also the right thing for us as long as it comes _____ our salvation experience and never _____.

Acts 16:25-34

So, make up your mind (right now) to openly declare your faith in Jesus Christ through the public act of believer's _____.

These are the lessons we learn from a man and his Master.
