Love and Assurance

Have you ever had _____ about your relationship with God? If that's the case I have good news for you.

1st John 3:14

1st John 3:16

In other words, the kind of love that proves our faith and gives us confidence is the kind of love that puts the needs of the other person ahead of our own no matter what it costs.

Love is more than making an ultimate sacrifice (death).

It's also about making daily sacrifices for one another when we put the needs of a brother or sister ahead of our own.

How does all of this apply to the church?

Ephesians 4:29

Galatians 6:10

Wouldn't you like to be in a church like that?

1st John 3:19-21

So, the question for the day is simple.

Do you have that kind of confidence?

Because if you don't you may be looking in all the _____ places. And one of those wrong places is a place we are never instructed to go not even one time in the Bible.

It's a place called _____.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Romans 10:17

But what if you're still having problems?

And what if you're still struggling to regain your confidence?

Then you may be suffering from a spiritual _____.

So, don't let the devil win.

Fight back and he will have to go.

Then your _____ will return and you can start to focus on your love life again which is your most powerful _____.
