Exodus 2:11-25 Discussion Guide
Hope Church Women's Bible Study September 15-16, 2026

DWELL Read the passage. As you listen to the passage, consider what stands out to you. What is surprising? Interesting? Confusing?

DIG 1. Consider the bookends of the passage (v11-12 and v23-25). What similarities and differences do you see at the beginning and end?

2. What do we learn about Moses in v11-15?

Compare these verses to the account given by Stephen in the book of Acts (see Acts 7:22-29 on the back). What does Stephen's sermon reinforce from the Exodus passage? What additional insight do we gain?

3. What more do we learn about Moses in v 16-22?

4. What might be significant about the name Moses gives his son? (See Genesis 15:13-14 on the back)

5. Read v23-24 again. What is the reaction of the people of Israel to their circumstances?

How does God respond?

What parallels can we draw from God's response and Genesis 15:14 and Genesis 46:1-4 (on the back).

6. What does this passage show you for the first time about (or remind you of something you already know about) God (Father, Son, Holy Spirit)?

DEEPEN

1. What is your general response to injustice? Share an example of a time you responded to injustice with fight or flight.

2. When you face difficulty, what is your posture toward God? Is prayer your usual response? Why or why not?

3. Share a time when you felt especially heard, seen or known by God. How can remembering God's promises and His faithfulness encourage you today?

Acts 7:22-29: 22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was mighty in his words and deeds. 23 "When he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Israel. 24 And seeing one of them being wronged, he defended the oppressed man and avenged him by striking down the Egyptian. 25 He supposed that his brothers would understand that God was giving them salvation by his hand, but they did not understand. 26 And on the following day he appeared to them as they were quarreling and tried to reconcile them, saying, 'Men, you are brothers. Why do you wrong each other?' 27 But the man who was wronging his neighbor thrust him aside, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge over us? 28 Do you want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' 29 At this retort Moses fled and became an exile in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons."

Genesis 15:13-14: 13"Then the LORD said to Abram, "Know for certain that your offspring will be sojourners in a land that is not theirs and will be servants there, and they will be afflicted for four hundred years. 14But I will bring judgment on the nation that they serve, and afterward they shall come out with great possessions."

Genesis 46:1-4: "So Israel took his journey with all that he had and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac. 2 And God spoke to Israel in visions of the night and said, "Jacob, Jacob." And he said, "Here I am." 3 Then he said, "I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you into a great nation. 4 I myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I will also bring you up again, and Joseph's hand shall close your eyes."
