LENTEN MIDWEEK

GATHER CONNECT SERVE

Beginning February 25, join us for Midweek; a time of community and connection in the middle of the week. A shared meal will be provided and childcare will be available, making it easy for the whole family to participate. All are welcome to join and encouraged to bring a friend or two or five.

Worship will be a bit different. The Prayer Communion service will be a Taizé style service. Taizé refers to both an ecumenical monastic community in France and a style of meditative, participatory prayer named after it, characterized by simple, repetitive chants, scripture readings, icons, and periods of silence, fostering Christian unity and a deep sense of God's presence. The chants become a form of "musical centering prayer" or "meditative singing" for reflection and peace.

You are invited to bring your joys and concerns and place them on our "Prayer Wall." This wall will remain throughout the season of Lent. Additionally, the sanctuary will be open at 4:45 for those that might like some quiet prayer time before the service.

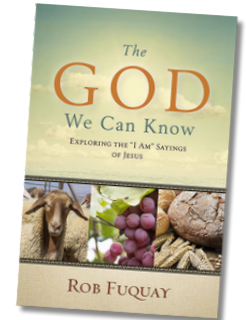

Lenten Worship

Our Epiphany journey has guided us from manger to mountain, inviting us to listen closely to Jesus' words in the Beatitudes and learn what life in God's kingdom looks like. In Lent, we take the next step—not just hearing Jesus' teaching, but coming to know more deeply who he is.

This Lent, we will explore Jesus' "I Am" statements through the study The God We Can Know by Rob Fuquay. These words—I am the bread of life, the light of the world, the good shepherd—are not abstract theology. They are promises spoken into real human need.

If Epiphany asked us to pay attention to the way of Jesus, Lent invites us to trust the One who walks that way with us. Join us as we discover a God who is not distant or hidden, but present, faithful, and knowable—especially in the wilderness places of our lives.

Join us this Lent.

In our study, we'll journey together through Jesus' powerful "I Am" statements, exploring what they reveal about His identity, presence, and invitation to deeper faith. This study will be part of our Midweek gathering and is open to all seeking reflection, renewal, and spiritual growth during the Lenten season.

Interested in some time to eat and relax? The Fellowship Hall will remain open for you to eat relax and be in fellowship with others. Kid activities will also be available in the fellowship hall.

Midweek Schedule

- 4:45pm – Sanctuary open for prayer and contemplation
- 5:00pm – Prayer & Communion Service in the Sanctuary
- 5:30pm – Dinner in Fellowship Hall
- 6:15pm – Lenten Study in the Library
- Financial Peace University – Rms. 17&18
- Choir
- Continued fellowship time

We have a new logo and name! We are retiring the ASG (Adult Spiritual Growth) name and logo. The ASG committee served St. Marks for many years creating and leading wonderful studies and events. We plan to continue that as the Adult Education Team.

Starting in February we will hold a zoom meeting for all those who are currently leading studies and programs. This will give us an opportunity to talk with each other about what we are leading and think of future studies or events. Meeting together will also help me have a better understanding of how I can support each leader. If you are interested in being a part of this discussion, please let me know. Our first zoom meeting will be Monday, February 9, 2026, at 6:30 pm.

Pastor Deborah

Adult Sunday School - 9:30 am Sundays in Rooms 17/18 and via Zoom. Please register online or contact a study leader to obtain Zoom information. Led by Rick Farnsworth.

Seekers Sunday Bible Study - 11 am Sundays in Rooms 17/18. Seekers continue their study of Joshua. While the story of the walls of Jericho falling down as part of a successful campaign by God and the Israelites is a familiar one, the reality is that much of the book is about bloody conquest of land. These stories are hard ones for us, but the Bible includes stories that are representative of human actions throughout history. Our challenge is to see how God IS working in history, and what our roles should be. Please feel free to join our often frustrating discussions.

Monday Mornings at Mountain View Retirement Village - 10:30 am in the 2nd floor conference room. All are welcome, even if you don't live in the Village! Read more on page 3!

ALL REGISTRATION IS ONLINE AT

Open Minds Book Group - Friday, 2/27, at 9 am on Zoom will discuss The Cellist of Sarajevo, by Steven Galloway (2008). In a city ravaged by war, a defiant musician plays his cello at the site of a mortar attack for 22 days, in memory of his fallen neighbors. Galloway's story follows the lives of three strangers, exploring how war can change one's definition of humanity, how music strengthens our endurance, and how our daily rituals can be a form of resistance. Led by Celeste Pardee and Ann Reaban.

Lenten Studies

Lenten Study at Mountain View

Beginning on Monday, February 16th, a Lenten study will be held at Mountain View Retirement Village at 10:30 am. The weekly lessons will make reference to a book titled: The God We Can Know by Rob Fuquay. The book is about knowing God and knowing God through Jesus. Purchasing a book is not required. Lessons and Bibles are provided each week. Contact Marge Sogn for additional information.

Wednesday Morning Lenten Study: "For the Defense....."

Beginning February 18, the Wednesday Morning Study will begin a simulation of court hearings concerning the characters who played a role in the crucifixion of Jesus. Who will be brought to trial? Will it be Judas, Pontius Pilate, Peter, the Roman soldiers or others who participated in the death of Jesus? On what evidence will the prosecution use to determine their guilt? Who will be assigned "for the defense" to protect and uphold the accused? Will the jury be impartial? Which judge will preside over each case and what will be the consequence if a defendant is found guilty?

Each week a new defendant will take the stand and the legal proceedings begin. You are invited to join this 6-week study and participate in each hearing. This class meets Wednesday mornings, in rooms 17/18, from 10-11:30 and by Zoom. No study book is required. Please contact Marcia Rostad if you will be attending via Zoom and need connection information.

Christian Meditation

Meditation is an important part of my daily faith practice. Beginning each day in silence helps ground me in God's presence and shapes how I listen, respond, and live.

Christian meditation is a spiritual discipline focused on drawing near to God, listening for God's voice, and being transformed by the Holy Spirit. Rooted in Scripture and the Christian tradition, it invites us to slow down, become still, and open ourselves to God's loving presence. Practices such as lectio divina and Centering Prayer help redirect our attention toward God's truth, peace, and guidance.

Centering Prayer, a modern contemplative practice, emphasizes resting in God through silence and a sacred word that expresses our intention to be open to God's presence and action within us.

Christian meditation is not an escape from life, but a way of entering life more fully—anchored in God's love and guided by the Spirit.

If you're interested in learning more or participating in a study on Christian meditation, please let me know.

*Blessings,
Pastor Deb*

International Friend - Jayawanti

My name is Jayawanti Ramakrishna. I am from Coimbatore (Tamilnadu, India). Coimbatore is a major manufacturing hub known for textiles, engineering, and a high number of entrepreneurs, but it is also known for having one of the highest numbers of bakeries per kilometer in India and for its connections to nature. Some of the things I miss from home the most are the food, strong filter coffee, and being around my family without needing to plan ahead. I also miss the small but noticeable things, like the smell of mud when it starts to rain and the greenery from being close to the Western Ghats. It's the ease of daily life, the people, and the environment that make Coimbatore feel like home, and that's what I miss the most.

I am studying for a Masters of Science in Genetics. My career goal is to start a molecular diagnostics venture in Coimbatore that focuses on reliable and accessible testing and is practical, locally relevant, and impactful. In my free time I enjoy watching movies, cooking and baking, and anything related to art and creativity. I also love scuba diving—it's one of my favorite ways to relax and explore something completely different from everyday life.

One thing that surprised me about Tucson is how beautiful the desert really is, especially during and after it rains. I also like how calm and open the city feels, with so much space, clear skies, and a slower pace of life. My favorite part of the International Friends program is the sense of community that the International Friends program creates. It makes being in a new place feel warmer and more welcoming, and helps you feel connected rather than alone.

Blessing of the Man in the Maze Mosaic

On January 18, we dedicated two new items in our Memorial Garden. The mosaic is designed by church member Ruth Matchley, depicting the Tohono O'odham Man in the Maze symbol. The Land Acknowledgement beside it names the Indigenous peoples who cared for this land long before us. Thank you, Ruth, and Church and Society for your beautiful gifts!

BLACK HISTORY

In 1972 Fred Snowden became the first African American head coach of a major university right here at the University of Arizona. He did so well that in 1973 he was named Tucson's Man of the Year. A KGUN9 report stated, "It is a sometimes forgotten part of Arizona Basketball history. In ways, it is more important than any conference title or even the 1997 National Championship. It is the hiring of Fred Snowden as Arizona head coach in the early 1970s."

As the first black head coach, Snowden dealt with blatant racism including the constant threat of violence. Nevertheless, Snowden remained committed to his team and focused on the game. In his ten years at the U of A he went 167 - 108. He also mentored his players and instilled in them valuable life lessons: the importance of hard work, perseverance, and determination.

After retiring he was named the executive director of the Food 4 Less non-profit foundation. This month we honor Fred Snowden (AKA 'The Fox') as a trailblazer and role model. - Church and Society

Financial Peace University

Our culture makes it so easy to feel stuck financially. Credit cards, car loans, money stress . . . that's not what God wants for us! That's why our church is hosting a Financial Peace University class starting on February 25th at 6 PM. Over nine weeks, we'll walk through God's ways of handling money so we can experience freedom with our finances! Sign up at umcstmarks.breezechms.com/form/FPU2026.

Kim and I took FPU 18 years ago. It's made such a difference in our lives. That's why I volunteered to facilitate this class. No matter how well you're doing, I know the material can help you improve and bring you financial peace.

From the Finance Committee

We wish you and your families a happy and blessed year for 2026. We are grateful for your generosity through the holiday season of 2025. Below are results of income and expenses through the month of December. December collections were higher than the previous year and although we finished the year behind budget, expense savings allowed us to finish the year with a small profit. We have had losses for the past several years and are encouraged by the results for 2025. In addition to the operating budget revenues, the congregation donated $25,873 to Nash Elementary School.

Description	YTD	Budget	Variance
Contributions	1,175,245	1,261,261	(86,016)
Other Income	76,484	62,500	13,984
Total Income	1,251,729	1,323,761	(72,032)
Expenses	1,237,469	1,364,141	(126,672)
Net Income (Loss)	14,260	(40,380)	54,640

We thank all of you who made pledges during the generosity campaign for 2026. Many who pledged increased their giving. However, we missed our target of 235, receiving 200 pledges totaling $782,049. The Finance Committee has completed a balanced budget to present to covenant council for approval. We will share more information regarding the 2026 budget next month.

We invite your prayers for these individuals - some for health reasons, some for facing hard times, some just because! We would like to pray for you. Submit prayer requests by email to prayerchain@umcstmarks.org or on our website at umcstmarks.breezechms.com/form/PrayerRequest

Incredibly Grateful

The SPRC gives thanks for and bids farewell to staff member Matthew Wineinger. Matthew has been the drummer for the Sanctuary praise team since 2010. Matthew started out as a fill in drummer for the church and quickly moved into the permanent drummer position. Matthew has been the one consistent member of the praise band through all of the leadership transitions of both Praise band leaders and pastor changes.

Matthew is now going through the process to enter an apprenticeship program to be an electrician.

If you missed his last Sunday, we encourage you to reach out to show your appreciation!

Thank You

Thanks to the Marksmen and youth for un-lighting our campus after Christmas, and to everyone who stayed after worship to pack up all our Christmas decor! Many hands make light work, and that was true for this task!

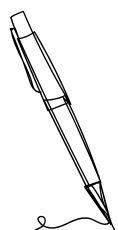

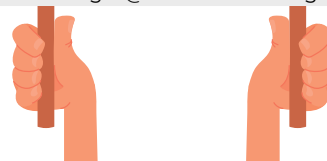

thank you

Thank you to everyone who reached out to ask about my father during the last seven months. He was always amazed that so many people asked about him and prayed for him. You all played a part in helping my dad understand how a caring church truly cares for everyone. Thank you for showing God's love to my father.

words from our Pastor

Called by Name

The other day, while having coffee, something simple but meaningful happened. When I pulled up to order my coffee, the barista greeted me by name. It may seem like a small moment, but it truly made my day. In that instant, I was reminded how powerful it is to be known, to be seen and called by name.

That moment pointed me to a deeper spiritual truth. God calls us by name.

Scripture tells us, "Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name; you are Mine" (Isaiah 43:1). In the middle of the craziness of this world, God's voice remains personal and steady. He does not define us by our circumstances, our labels, or what others may say about us. God sees the heart.

Jesus reminds us, "He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out" (John 10:3). No matter where we come from, what we are carrying, or what season we are in, God knows us intimately and calls us His own. His love reaches beyond titles, roles, and opinions. It reaches the person.

For a little over a month now, I have been meeting weekly for Coffee with Pastor T. These moments of conversation, listening, prayer, and presence have reminded me why connection matters so much in the life of the church. This experience has encouraged me to keep this going.

I want to invite you to join me.

Coffee with Pastor T takes place every Thursday from 11 am to 1 pm at Starbucks on Silverbell and Twin Peaks by the Safeway. Whether you come with questions, stories, or simply a desire for fellowship, you are welcome. Come as you are. God already knows your name.
