

Day 1 – When Comfort Becomes a Cage

Scripture: Haggai 1:2–4

Reflection

Comfort and complacency often disguise themselves as wisdom. The people said, “It’s not time.” It may seem that people are being thoughtful or prudent with their time, but delayed obedience is disobedience. When God gives us a task to do, it is essential to make the most of our time and not delay.

Illustration

A ship in harbor is safe, but that’s not what ships are built for. Ships are built to go out on the sea and ride the waves of adventure. A ship that never leaves the harbor is not performing the task for which it was built. God didn’t call us to comfort but to service. God didn’t call Christians only to fill a pew but to go out and impact the world around them for the kingdom.

Application

Where has comfort replaced calling in your life? Step out of the harbor—serve God today.
