

Day 2, "Whole-Life Worship"

Scripture: Malachi 1:14

Reflection

God reminds His people that He is a great King. Worship is not confined to a service or a song, it is a way of life. Praise, fellowship, service, generosity, and obedience all become acts of worship when directed toward Him.

Too often, faith is reduced to Sunday participation while the rest of the week belongs to us. But God desires hearts fully surrendered, not occasional devotion.

True worship means honoring God in how we speak, serve, give, forgive, and live every day.

A musician doesn't practice only on performance day. Daily discipline sustains excellence.

Application

Identify one daily habit that could turn ordinary moments into worship.

What would it look like to honor God intentionally throughout your week?
