

Day 3 — Hope Beyond Judgment

Scripture: Malachi 4:5–6

Malachi closes with hope. God promises that restoration will come. The work of the coming Messiah would transform hearts and restore what sin had broken.

Jesus fulfills this promise. Through Him, hearts of stone become hearts of flesh. Through Him, broken relationships with God are restored. Through Him, salvation is made possible.

The future of the believer is not defined by judgment but by redemption.

Reflection: How has Christ changed your heart and restored your relationship with God?
