

Discussion Questions — Malachi 4

1. In the passage, some people claim there is no profit in serving God. Why do people sometimes feel this way when they look at the world around them?

---

---

---

2. The people observed that the wicked seemed to prosper while the faithful struggled. How can comparison distort our perspective on God's blessings?

---

---

---

3. The sermon mentioned that comparison can be the thief of joy. In what ways have you seen comparison affect your own spiritual life or contentment?

---

---

---

4. What are some spiritual blessings believers experience now that the world may not recognize as profit?

---

---

---

5. The passage mentions a Book of Remembrance where God records the faithfulness of His people. How does this truth encourage believers who feel unnoticed or unappreciated?

---

---

---

6. God promises to spare those who belong to Him. How does salvation through Christ remove fear from the coming judgment?

---

---

---

7. Malachi says there will be a distinction between the righteous and the wicked. Since we are not righteous on our own, how does Christ make this distinction possible?

---

---

---

8. The prophecy speaks of restored hearts. How does the gospel transform a hardened heart into one that loves God?

---

---

---

9. The recap reminds us that justice may seem delayed or absent. Why is trusting God's timing essential for maintaining faith in a broken world?

---

---

---

10. The sermon notes point out that both individuals and churches can stray from God. What are some warning signs that a church or believer is drifting spiritually?

---

---

---

11. If the greatest blessing is salvation, how should that truth affect our priorities, worship, and service to God?

---

---

---