

1 Peter 1:1–12 Devotional – Day 1: A Living Hope

Reflection

Through Christ, we have been given a new birth into a living hope and an eternal inheritance, imperishable, undefiled, and unfading. Unlike anything in this world, our inheritance cannot be lost, diminished, or taken away. It is secure because it is guarded by God Himself.

Illustration

Earthly inheritances can be lost through poor decisions, economic downturns, or unforeseen circumstances. But imagine an inheritance locked in a vault that cannot be accessed, corrupted, or stolen. That is the kind of inheritance believers have in Christ, eternally secure.

Application

When life feels uncertain or discouraging, intentionally remind yourself of what is guaranteed in Christ. Let your eternal inheritance shape your daily perspective.

Prayer

Father, thank You for the living hope I have in Christ. Help me to live with an eternal perspective and not be overwhelmed by temporary struggles.
