

1 Peter 1:13–2:3 Devotional

Day 1: Motivated by Grace

Reflection

Peter instructs believers to fix their hope on the grace to be revealed in Jesus Christ. Grace is not only the foundation of our salvation; it is also the motivation for how we live. When we truly grasp that God has given us what we do not deserve, it stirs within us a desire to live in a way that honors Him.

Illustration

When someone shows you unexpected kindness, it naturally creates a desire to respond with gratitude. God's grace works the same way, but on a much greater and eternal scale.

Application

Take time today to reflect on the grace God has shown you. Allow that reflection to shape your attitude, your decisions, and the way you treat others.

Prayer

Father, thank You for Your grace. Help me never to take it for granted, and let it motivate me to live a life that honors You.