

1 Peter 1:1–12 Devotional – Day 2: Living Out Your Faith

Reflection

True faith is not merely something we profess, it is something we live. In a world that may be indifferent or even hostile to the gospel, believers are called to demonstrate their faith through both actions and words. A genuine relationship with Christ produces visible transformation.

Illustration

A tree is recognized by its fruit. A healthy tree naturally produces good fruit, while an unhealthy one does not. In the same way, authentic faith will be evident in how we live.

Application

Examine your life today. What visible evidence of your faith can others see? Identify one intentional way to live out your faith in a practical, observable way.

Prayer

Lord, let my faith be more than words. Shape my actions, attitudes, and responses so that others clearly see You in me.
