

1 Peter 1:1–12 Devotional – Day 3: A Faith Passed Down

Reflection

The gospel has been passed down through generations of faithful believers. Many endured hardship, sacrifice, and even persecution to ensure that others would hear the truth of Christ. We are recipients of that faithfulness, and now participants in continuing it.

Illustration

A relay race depends on each runner faithfully passing the baton to the next. The race continues only when each person fulfills their role. The gospel moves forward in the same way.

Application

Reflect on those who have influenced your faith. Then consider who you are intentionally investing in. Take a step today to share, encourage, or disciple someone else.

Prayer

Father, thank You for those who shared the gospel with me. Help me to be faithful in passing it on to others.
