

1 Peter 2:11–25

1. Why is it important for Christians to keep their behavior above reproach even when they are being criticized or slandered?

2. How can a believer's consistent godly behavior impact unbelievers over time?

3. What does it mean to practice God centered submission and how is this different from blind obedience?

4. What are the biblical limits of submission to earthly authorities and when must a Christian draw the line?

5. How does our conduct as citizens affect the reputation of the gospel in our community?

6. In what practical ways can we do good as an act of submission to authority?

7. How can Christians misuse their freedom and what does it look like to use that freedom in service to God?

8. What does it look like in everyday life to honor all people love the brotherhood fear God and honor the king?

9. Why is it especially difficult to submit to harsh or unfair authority and how should a believer respond in those situations?

10. How does the example of Jesus' unjust suffering motivate us to endure hardship for the sake of the gospel?
