

Be Ready

Reflection

Peter instructs believers to always be ready to give a defense for the hope within them. Defending faith does not require expert-level arguments, but it does require understanding what we believe and why.

Illustration

Someone preparing for an important journey gathers supplies before the trip begins.

Application

Commit to studying one area of your faith this week.

Prayer

Father, help me to grow in understanding and confidence.