

Habakkuk 3 - Discussion Questions

Habakkuk 3

1. How has Habakkuk's attitude toward God changed from the beginning of the book to chapter 3?

2. What does Habakkuk teach us about accepting God's will even when we know the road ahead will be difficult?

3. Can you think of a time when you struggled to understand what God was doing, but later could see how He had been working?

4. Why do you think we sometimes have difficulty recognizing the movement of God while we are in the middle of a difficult situation?

5. How can prayer, learning, and asking questions contribute to spiritual maturity rather than weaken our faith?

6. Habakkuk sought God's will, asked questions, searched for God's movement, and surrendered to His will. Which of these is most difficult for you, and why?

7. Habakkuk says he will "wait patiently for the day of distress." What does patient faith look like when we know something difficult may be coming?

8. What are some specific ways God has provided for, sustained, or answered you in the past that help you trust Him now?

9. What is the difference between worshiping God because of our circumstances and worshiping God because of who He is?

10. What does the picture of God giving Habakkuk "feet like a hind's feet" teach us about how God carries us through difficult circumstances?
