2. Israel's Exodus from Egypt and Entry into Canaan

JOSHUA 3

Verse 6 - Joshua said to the priests, "Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on ahead of the people." So they took it up and went ahead of them.

Verse 11 - See, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth will go into the Jordan ahead of you.

Verse 14 - So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them.

JOSHUA 3

Joshua said to the Israelites, “Come here and listen to the words of the Lord your God. This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that he will certainly drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites and Jebusites. See, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth will go into the Jordan ahead of you. Now then, choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe. And as soon as the priests who carry the ark of the Lord—the Lord of all the earth—set foot in the Jordan, its waters flowing downstream will be cut off and stand up in a heap.”

ROMANS 8

What then can we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his Son, but gave him up for us all - how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
