Happy Thanksgiving!

I hope this update finds you all preparing for Thanksgiving feasts, family gatherings, and church events. This month in our church we studied Psalm 100 on Sundays to get a better understanding of how we can live our lives full of thanksgiving. We capped it off this past Sunday with the Lord's Supper. It has been a great month of reminding ourselves of who God is, what He has done for us, and why He is deserving of our praise and our thanks.

Many Thanks

As I give you all a quick update, I'd also like to keep that theme of thanksgiving and praise God for who He is and what He has done for us.

Next month will mark 5 years since our family moved to Hungary. We arrived in Budapest on December 10, 2020. I can't believe 5 years have already past. I'm thankful that God provided a way for our family to get to Hungary during the pandemic. I'm thankful that He showed us which apartment to rent and what neighborhood to call home. We still live in the same place, and we are ministering in the same neighborhood today.

I'm thankful for the friends that God has given us since we moved here, and the help they have given us in learning to live here. I'm thankful that the boys and I were able to become dual citizens since moving here, allowing us to stay in the country much easier. I'm thankful our boys get to go to school here and be raised bilingual.

I'm thankful that God used us to plant Zugló Bible Church in 2024. I'm thankful for the Christians who gather together in our church to worship, learn, fellowship, and serve.

I'm thankful for those that we have been able to lead to Christ in the past 5 years. I'm thankful for the young man I'm discipling and was privileged to baptized last year. I'm thankful for the many guests who have come through our church in the past 2 years and have heard the gospel, even though they may not accepted it yet. I'm thankful that God allows us to serve Him in this amazing country and culture.

And, I am thankful for all of you who have continued to faithfully support us through prayer and sacrificial giving. We couldn't serve the Lord in this way if it wasn't for you all. From the bottom of my heart, thank you for your service to the Lord. My gratitude cannot be adequately put into words.

As I reflect upon the last 5 years, I am also praying for God to give me vision for our church for next year, as well as the next 5 years. It is amazing to be at this point in our ministry, and I am excited to see what God will continue to do.

Preaching at Another Church

This coming Sunday my family will be traveling to a city in Hungary a couple hours away from Budapest to preach at their church. The pastor and his family are friends of ours and they've invited us to be with them. So we will be out of town this weekend, and the people at our church will be holding down the fort in Budapest. I have a friend coming in to preach for me too. Please pray for them and the service while we are away.

Christmas Outreach

Earlier today I had a meeting with a guy from our church and one of his former colleagues. He used to work for a non-profit organization that works with helping children of immigrants here in Hungary. We have an opportunity to buy some gifts for a small class of about 20 kids. So as a church we will buy supplies and put the gifts together, and then the week before Christmas we will take them to the kids. We will give them each a Bible and share the gospel and the true meaning of Christmas with them. I'm excited for this opportunity. Please pray for it!

Prayers & Praise

- Praise and thanksgiving for the past 5 years of life and ministry in Hungary!
- Prayer for our church while we are away this weekend
- Prayer for our church Christmas services in December

- Prayer for Christmas gift outreach for the children
- Prayer for protection from spiritual warfare
- Prayer for God to send us more seeking men and women. For fruit and spiritual growth!

Again, thank you all for your faithful prayers and support. I pray that you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday and weekend with your families, friends, and churches.

God bless!

Psalm 100:4-5

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.
